Re: Herbalist & Alchemist, Inc. v. Alurent Products, Inc. and Will Clarent
16-cv-9204 (ER)

---

Dear Judge Ramos,

This Firm represents Plaintiff Herbalist & Alchemist, Inc. in the above-referenced matter. We write seeking clarification of your July 20, 2017 Order (the “Order”) so that we may properly effectuate service. Your Order requires service by Federal Express; however, a few of the entities listed in the Order, namely, Supplement Police, Supplement Journal and CBDDiagnosis, do not appear to have physical addresses. Despite our diligent search, the only physical addresses that we can locate for these entities are in care of their respective domain hosts.

We therefore seek guidance as to whether we should serve these entities by Federal Express at the addresses of their domain hosts, or in the alternative, we seek Your Honor’s permission to serve these entities by email, or by Federal Express and email.

We thank Your Honor for his attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILLIPS NIZER LLP
